To: All USFS Judges

We have most of the information that you all have been requesting regarding the Dance Judge's School to be held in East Lansing, Michigan. This school is sponsored by the DETROIT METRO COUNCIL and hosted by the Lansing Skating Club - and will be held Saturday, June 12th, 2004.

The school will be held at the IceSports Facility, 2810 Hannah Boulevard, East Lansing, Michigan 48823. See enclosed Tentative Schedule for the day). Note that I have mentioned it's a TENTATIVE schedule - giving the opportunity of course to entertain minor changes!!

For those of you travelling distances we have a wonderful hotel set up - the University Quality Inn (near the Frandor Shopping Center). They will be providing a full hot breakfast for everyone that stays there. We will be providing a continental type breakfast at the rink as well as lunch, and snacks all afternoon.

Charlie Cyr, who is heading up the school, is busy lining up faculty and demonstrators. We will of course have more information for you as we receive it - and you will be able to find it on the Lansing Skating Club Website: www.LansingSC.com

www.sk8stuff.com

We will be holding a testing session all day Sunday, June 13th, and the LSC Test Chairman is anxious to know what officials will be available to judge that session. Karen Bennett is the Test Chairman and she can be reached at email address: Karenmb@tds.net

This information will at least get you started - so be sure to keep checking the websites. As always - should you need some additional information please be sure to get in touch with me by any means listed below.
